New Englanders hardly ever need to check yellow signal the seasonal changes on their own. You'll note these as you travel along the Mohawk Trail in Massachusetts. You'll then visit the lovely village of Shelburne* *where the famous Bridge of Flowers is located. A former trolley bridge that crossed the Deerfield River, the structure has now been converted to a veritable cornucopia of annual and perennial flowers. Next you're off for a traditional New England luncheon at the New England Restaurant in Brattleboro, Vermont, where a delicious full course luncheon, featuring a garden salad, choice of either Cider Chicken, New England Pot Roast or Orange Tarragon Salmon entrées and a scrumptious dessert.

Afterwards you will travel south through the Pioneer Valley, where you'll visit Atkins Farms, a very unique shopping experience, where old time service is an everyday treat. As you stroll through the store you may well be tempted to sample a crisp, juicy
