  - Grist Mill Visit

9:00 AM Join your friends today for a most entertaining and delightful day in Sudbury, Massachusetts, at the historic Wayside Inn.

Over 300 years old, the Wayside Inn has proudly hosted travelers far and wide. A very interesting fact is that Wayside’s Grist Mill is an actual operating mill which produces flour to this day. Up until just a few years ago, the Grist Mill provided all flour used for Pepperidge Farm Breads. Henry Ford was one of many benefactors, and he brought the Red Schoolhouse from the famous poem “Mary Had A Little Lamb” to Sudbury You’ll be able to see the Mary’s Schoolhouse right on the grounds today! A special treat will be the Wayside Inn’s “Stagecoach Luncheon” which you’ll enjoy:

First Course: Tossed Green Salad

Second Course: Yankee Pot Roast w/ Jardiniere Sauce/Boston Scrod w/ Lemon Butter

Dessert: Warm Deep Dish Apple Pie w/ Fresh Whipped Cream

Serve w/ Chef’s choice of Potato, Vegetable & Gristmill Bakery Basket

Other attractions include a plaque commemorating George Washington visit in 1775, several period rooms to view and a wonderful gift shop where Grist Mill flour is on sale. You’ll return home with fond memories of the historic and interesting Wayside Inn.
